

What's my grade, Mr. Lake?

The Portfolio – Out-of-Class Self-Assessment Guide

Give yourself a grade by circling the grade, or grades, you feel you have or are in-between. You may circle more than one grade in order to illustrate. Notes can be written along the way. Any other comments can be written on the back.

Follow-Through

Have I turned in ALL of my work?

Are all of my assignments completed?

Am I turning my work in on-time and ready at the start of class?

A: Always have work done and on time

B: Almost always

C: Sometimes

D: My work is missing or late

F: I'm working on it

You: A B C D F

Lake: A B C D F

Quality of Work

Have I turned in quality work based on my talent and skills?

Am I consistently turning in my BEST work?

Am I showing evidence of critical thinking?

Am I showing evidence of applying content to the real world?

Am I effectively communicating my ideas to the audience?

A: Consistent high quality work

B: Work is good

C: Decent

D: Quality needs improvement

F: Not my best work

You: A B C D F

Lake: A B C D F